Total Expenditures	$0	$5,000,000	$0

Enactment of this bill would appropriate $5,000,000 one-time from the Income Tax Fund beginning in FY 2024 to the Utah Board of Higher Education (UBHE) to create the Karen Mayne Public Safety Officer Scholarship Program. This cost includes $12,770 for tuition, fees, and textbooks per scholarship recipient in addition to UBHE usage of up to 2%, or $100,000, of money appropriated for administrative costs, as outlined in the bill. The cost will vary depending on the number of scholarship recipients, cost of tuition and fees, the length of post-secondary degree or certificate programs, and peace officer career duration.

Notes on Notes

Fiscal notes estimate the direct costs or revenues of enacting a bill. The Legislature uses them to balance the budget. They do not measure a bill's benefits or non-fiscal impacts like opportunity costs, wait times, or inconvenience. A fiscal note is not an appropriation. The Legislature decides appropriations separately.
